

Report of the final CMC_E partner's meeting
Cetraro, University of Calabria, Italy
13th December 2009

The final CMC_E partners' meeting was organized by the University of Calabria (P1) and was held on 13th December 2009, in Cetraro (CS), Italy.

The meeting started with a welcoming speech by the Project Coordinator, Carmen Argondizzo, who outlined the main issues to be discussed during the same meeting.

The partners who participated in the meeting were:

Carmen Argondizzo, Anna Maria De Bartolo, Angela Gallo, Jean Marguerite Jimenez, Eugenia Mascherpa, (P1-University of Calabria, Italy)

Mateusz Czepielewski, Slawomir Czepielewski (P3- Warsaw Academy, poland)

Isabel Refega de Figueiredo e Silva, Carlos dos Reis, Luisa potencio (P4 - Instituto Politecnico de Castelo Branco, Portugal)

Beata Czéreová and Helena Mazurova (P5 - Technical University of Kosice, Slovak Republic)

Alba Cachafeiro Requeijo (P6 - Universidad de Santiago de Compostela, Spain)

Jim Pavitt (P7 - London School of Economics and Political Science, UK),

The first part of the meeting was devoted to group work, concentrating in particular on technicalities, and on how CMC_E materials could be improved by implementing the user-friendliness of the web page. Each group then reported back to the others and a general discussion followed.

Then, a representative of the CMC_E Administrative Office gave a presentation on Financial and Administrative Matters, focusing on important points which each partner had to include in their final reports and giving deadlines for these.

The last part of the meeting was dedicated to the organization of the launch presentation of the CMC_E project during the section "Language Creativity in business settings" of the 1st

Lifelong Learning Programme

International CILS (Creativity and Innovation in Languages Studies) conference and to task allocation among the partners.

Education, Audiovisual & Culture

It was decided that each partner was going to present the main objectives and the most relevant language activities of one CMC_E unit. As said, the CMC_E presentation was delivered on the following day, during the CILS conference.

In order to emphasize the multilingualism and multiculturalism of the CMC_E Project, the Project Coordinator suggested that each partner was going to present and show one unit in their own native languages, therefore in Italian, Spanish, Polish, English, Slovak and Portuguese. The participants seemed to enjoy and appreciate this mixture of languages.

The partnership agreed that CMC_E presentation would be started with an overview given by the Project Coordinator, Carmen Argondizzo. Secondly, the Italian partner would have showed the main objectives and activities of Unit 1, Training in the worked place; the Slovak partner would have followed with a more detailed presentation of the same unit; the Spanish partner would have presented the second unit, Administration; the Polish partner would have continued with the third unit, Business and Finance; the fourth unit, Marketing, would have been presented by the Polish partner; the fifth unit, Technology and Environment, would have been presented by the Portuguese partner.

The partnership agreed that also after the end of the project each partner would have continued with the dissemination activities of the CMC_E results, for example participating at the ESSE Conference of August 2010 in Torino, Italy.
